

THEY MADE HISTORY

A collection of 48-page graphic novel biographies of great historical figures.

Each book is created jointly by renowned historians or professors and comic book artists, to ensure that the content is based on historical fact. Each volume focuses on a specific aspect of the person's life and achievements. At the end of each volume there is an 8 page appendix written by the expert which provides further insight into the person, the historical context and the events covered in the comic.

The art style is consistent across the series.

Format: 20 x 27,3 cm • 128 pages • One Shot volumes • 19,50 euros
