

CHAPITRE 1 - DEUXIÈME GÉNÉRATION (1847-1848)

Roquevaire, novembre 1847. Autour du cercueil d'Hugo, la deuxième génération des Sambre se déchire. Même mort, la malédiction du Patriarche plane au dessus de tous. Il y a Sarah, la grande fille qui veut achever la Guerre des Yeux, l'œuvre de son père. Bernard, son jeune frère, qui rêve d'un ailleurs. Leur mère, veuve joyeuse qui flirte avec le cousin Guizot... Et puis il y a cette braconnière aux yeux rouges, qui rôde autour de la Bastide et du dernier fils... Entre Bernard et Julie la maudite, c'est le début d'une passion funeste. Rouge comme l'amour, noire comme la mort...

SAMBRE

Yslaïre (text & Arwork)

Bernard Sambre and Julie's love is a confrontation, yet a strong burning ember that shines out of this comics masterpiece. It is an illustrious example of 19th century romanticism with a black soul and burning sentiments. The Sambre family is cursed with red eyes. But the young Bernard has decided not to take it into consideration and ignore his father and sister's warnings, because even if she has red eyes Julie is beautiful, full of animal magnetism and they are in love. Sambre is a terrifying romantic saga of incredible graphic beauty telling a tale of great love, blood and death.
